

Social Work and Social Ecology:
Community Responses to Climate Change
Short-term Mobility Program

Syllabus

Course title:	Community Development (online course)
Course date:	April 13, Tuesday, 14:00-15:30; 16:00-16:45
Lecturer:	Szilvia Nyers
Topics of the theme:	What does community mean? Back to basic exercise. Urban community development. On the margins of society. Working as a volunteer. The experience of local communities.
Course Aims:	The main focus of the lectures is engaging students and emphasising the values of local communities. Integration and combination of theories and good practices. Raising awareness; learning the lessons for our globalized world.
Learning Outcomes: Knowledge	Overview of community development. From the historical view to nowadays' alternative social community solutions.
Learning Outcomes: Skills	Students will be able to <ul style="list-style-type: none">○ give a balanced, critical-reflective evaluation on social phenomena and problems related to communities○ explore the needs of our communities by relying on Appreciative Inquiry principles○ initiate a development process/contribute as a volunteer